

Core Partners

Associate Partners

Integrated, Collaborative Service Delivery

Opportunity for service providers to engage in cross-sector collaboration and integration.

Greater, measurable outcomes for and with the people that we serve.

Core Partners

Associate Partners

Integrated, Collaborative Service Delivery

Opportunity for service providers to engage in cross-sector collaboration and integration.

Greater, measurable outcomes for and with the people that we serve.

Integrated, Collaborative Service Delivery

Opportunity for service providers to engage in cross-sector collaboration and integration.

Greater, measurable outcomes for and with the people that we serve.

Consultation

Through this process over 600 individuals and organizations have been consulted.

As this initiative continues we remain committed to transparency, communication and dialogue with residents, businesses and the broader community.

Reconciliation Through Reclamation

The inclusion of distinctly Indigenous design features will reclaim the space of the Edmonton Remand; just as the services provided in the Community Centre at Boyle Street will work to undo the systemic trauma which is a direct result of the Indian Residential School system.

Consultation

Through this process over 600 individuals and organizations have been consulted.

As this initiative continues we remain committed to transparency, communication and dialogue with residents, businesses and the broader community.

Reconciliation Through Reclamation

The inclusion of distinctly Indigenous design features will reclaim the space of the Edmonton Remand, just as the services provided in the Community Centre at Boyle Street will work to undo the systemic trauma which is a direct result of the Indian Residential School system.

Consultation

Through this process over 600 individuals and organizations have been consulted.

As this initiative continues we remain committed to transparency, communication and dialogue with residents, businesses and the broader community.

Reconciliation Through Reclamation

The inclusion of distinctly Indigenous design features will reclaim the space of the Edmonton Remand, just as the services provided in the Community Centre at Boyle Street will work to undo the systemic trauma which is a direct result of the Indian Residential School system.